

A critical review of statutory limits of blood alcohol concentration in India and other countries: Certain discrepancies in existing Indian laws

1Rizvi, S.J., 1,6 Usmani J.A., 2Saeed S., 3Hanif, S.A., 3 Husain M., 4Wali, T., 5 Khan, W.5

A critical evaluation of statutory limits in India and some other countries points out to the dismal fact that there is discrepant law in India dealing with problem of drunken driving. A comparative study of the statutory provisions from relevant laws in India and other countries will be presented in order to remove prevailing discrepancies in Indian law on drunken driving

1 Professor; 2 Lecturer; 3Reader; 4 JR-III; 5JR-I

Department of forensic medicine 6 Chairman

J N Medical College, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh-202002 India